Notice for the Promoters

It has come to the notice of this Authority that the hard copy files of online project applications, submitted by the promoters do not have complete documents, index, page numbering and/or are not being flagged properly. In the absence of these, it is difficult to arrange and maintain the hard copy files as per online checklist. Therefore, the promoters are required to ensure that the hard copy files of online project applications contain complete documents, with index, page numbering and flagging, as per online application checklist, before it is submitted in the office of this Authority.
